

Remember us during your 2009 workplace giving campaign!

Workplace giving programs allow employees to direct a portion of their paychecks to a charitable organization.

Community Health Charities is a federation of health organizations working to improve the health and well-being for people right here in your own neighborhood.

Federal employees, members of the US Military and other government employees can direct donations through their respective combined federal campaigns.

To find out if your workplace participates in an employee giving campaign or if your favorite health charity is part of Community Health Charities, visit:
